Deaths.

Mr. A. Upshur Mapp, a native of Accomac, highly esteemed by all who knew him at his old home for his many excellent traits of character, died Saturday in Baltimore, aged 50 years. The following notice of the deceased appeared in the Baltimore Sun of Sunday:

"Mr. Abel Upshur Mapp died early yesterday morning at his home, 1011 Whitefoot street, as a result of nervous prostration, from which he had suffered for some time. He was born May 7, 1845, his parents being Mr. George S. Mapp, who owned a large plantation on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and Susan Scarborough Mapp, a sister of Judge George P. Scarborough, of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Mapp studied at the University of Virginia in the class with Hon. John S. Wise, of New York, and later read law in the office of his uncle, Judge Scarborough, in Norfolk. He afterwards located on a plantation on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and came to Baltimore 28 years ago, entering the employ of Mr. John E. Hurst as traveling salesman, which position he held until his death.

In 1883 Mr. Mapp married Miss Florine Welbourne, of Baltimore, who survives him, with two children—Upshur Welbourne and Douglas Welbourne Mapp—15 and 9 years old, respectively. A brother, George S. Mapp, and a half-brother, Columbus G. Mapp, and a half-sister, Mrs. Margaret Finney, also survive."

His funeral took place Monday afternoon from his home, 1011 Whitefoot street. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. H. Ingle, of St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal Church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Lloyd L. Jackson, William B. Hurst, John W. Corbin, James U. Dennis, T. S. Fisher, William A. Lewis. Interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mr. Raymond R. Hutchinson died Saturday, 19th inst., at his home at Harborton, aged 72 years, and was laid to rest in the family burying ground at that place on Monday, after funeral services over his remains conducted by Rev. W. H. Gregory, of the M. E. Church, South, and Rev. M. F. Sanford, of the Baptist Church.

In the death of Mr. Hutchinson Accomac loses one of her worthiest and best citizens. He had been for years a consistent member of the Episcopal Church and was an upright and honorable man in the highest and best sense. He had and deserved the respect and confidence of all who knew him. His wife survives him.

Mr. J. Fred Floyd, of Baltimore, died at St. Agnes Sanitarium, in that city, on last Tuesday night, after a long illness, aged 67 years. The deceased was a native of Northampton county, Va., and his remains were buried at Eastville in that county on Thursday last. He is survived by a brother, Mr. Wm. Floyd, and a sister, Miss Nannie T. Floyd, of Baltimore.—Marylander & Herald, 19th.

Mr. James K. Savage, a highly respected citizen, died Saturday, of paralysis, at his home, near Belle Haven, aged about 70 years. Funeral services and interment Sunday, his pastor, Rev. J. E. Potts, conducting the exercises. His wife and one son, Percy Savage, survive him.

To The Trade.

If you once try S. K. C. package coffee, you will use no other as it is the best package coffee in America to-day for the money. Try it. Please remember that the "Olimar" flour took the premium at both Agricultural fairs.

Snow, Knox & Co.

The leaves have fallen—prices have fallen. The autumn imp is nipping away at trees and hedges, the cool morning and evenings will soon lengthen into chilly days and nights, but this is not a weather forecast, it's merely a hint as to how the hard earned dollars may do double duty in buying fall and winter suits at Pate & Mason's.
